SATURDAYS AT ΕΜΣΤ

12.11.2022 at 13.00

EMΣΤ invites you to an alternative guided tour of its collection based on seminal texts of modern feminist theory. Curators of EMΣΤ together with researchers of the Centre of New Media and Feminist Public Practices (Athens and Volos) will provide a guided tour of the Museum collection and will analyse the work of specific artists as well as the history of contemporary Greek art through the essays of publication Feminist Theories, Aesthetic Practices and Globalised Technologies published by Thessaly University Editions. The tour will adopt alternative approaches to important works in the collection and will propose new readings of works by Aspa Stassinopoulou, Niki Kanagini, Nan Goldin, Köken Ergün, Mona Hatoum or Vlassis Kaniaris, based on texts in the publication written by Judith Butler, Sylvia Federici, Donna Haraway, Sarah Ahmed, Athina Athanasiou, Elena Tzelepi, Christina Grammatikopoulou, Angela Dimitrakaki and others.

The tour will be conducted by the editors of the volume Elpida Karampa and Iris Lykourioti, the members of the research team Ioanna Zouli, Valia Papastamou and Marianna Stefanitsi and EMΣΤ curators Anna Mykoniati, Stamatis Schizakis and education curator Marina Tsekou.

A discussion will follow and participants will be offered a complimentary copy of the volume.

The event is named after Audre Lorde's essay The Master's Tools Will Never Dismantle the Master's House.

Time: 13:00

Duration of the guided tour: 90´

Entry is free with admission tickets that will be distributed on a first come first served basis half an hour before the guided tour.

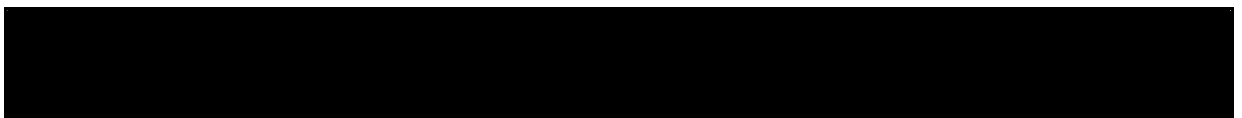

Meeting point: Foyer

The guided tour will be held in Greek.
